

ANTI-RAGGING LAWS IN INDIA

Introduction

Ragging is originally a western concept and was originally a form of social interaction between seniors and juniors in schools and colleges. However, these interactions, have taken a very brutal, inhuman and anti-social, form at times. Even some of the highly reputed colleges and institutions have a terrible history of ragging. Ragging has social, physical, political economic academic and physiological dimensions. Vishwa Jagriti Mission[1] filed Public Interest Litigation for curbing ragging. Another relevant judgment passed in the year 2007 by the Hon'ble Supreme Court was in University of Kerala vs. Council Principals, Colleges Kerala & Ors.[2] R.K Raghvan Committee post 2007 order of the Hon'ble Court had shared a detailed report to tackle the problem of ragging. The article examines what our law says about ragging.

A. Definition of Ragging

Under laws in India, ragging is defined as:

- (i) Any disorderly conduct by either by acts or words spoken, the effect of which is teasing, treating or handling with rudeness any other student;
- (ii) Any rowdy or undisciplined activity, which causes annoyance, hardship or psychological harm;
- (iii) Raise fear or apprehension thereof in the minds of junior
- (iv) Asking the students to do an act or perform something, which such student will not do in ordinary course, which has the effect of causing shame or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of a junior student

B. Legislations on Ragging

Some States[3] in India have their own legislations on ragging. Some States which do not have their own legislation on ragging and therefore the ragging laws in these States are in accordance with the central legislations on ragging.

C. Central Legislations

The central legislations, which keep check on the practice of ragging in India, are:

1. Indian Penal Code
2. UGC Regulations On Curbing The Menace Of Ragging In Higher Educational Institutions, 2009
3. Other institute specific regulations

D. Punishments under Indian Penal Code against acts of Ragging

Every single incident of ragging or abetting in ragging puts an obligation on the institution to get the FIR registered. There are provisions in the IPC, which can be used by a student to register an FIR in the nearest Police Station. These provisions are:

294                      -                      Obscene                      acts                      and                      songs
323                      -                      punishment                      for                      voluntarily                      causing                      hurt

E. UGC Regulations on Curbing The Menace Of Ragging In Higher Educational Institutions, 2009

1.Scope of these Guidelines

These regulations were passed by the University Grants Commission in the year 2009 to curb the menace of ragging in the Universities in India. The best part of these regulations is that they shall apply to all the institutions including:

- (i) Under the Central/provincial/state act
- (ii) Deemed university under the UGC Act, 1956
- (iii) All other educational institutions

The guidelines extend to all the premises, whether located in the campus or outside and also in means of transportation whether public or private. The objective of these guidelines is to ensure completely wiping and prohibiting the activities of ragging

Freshers are to allotted a different hostel

3. Regulations by other Bodies

Apart from IPC and the UGC Regulations, there are other government bodies that have their own laws on ragging in their respective acts. For example the All India Council For Technical Education [AICTE] and the Medical Council of India have made their own regulations under their respective acts.

(i) The AICTE has created "All India Council for Technical Education (Prevention and Prohibition of Ragging in Technical Institutions, Universities including Deemed to be Universities imparting technical education) Regulations 2009" under Section 23 and Section 10 of the AICTE Act, 1987.

(ii) Similarly, the Medical Council of India has made "Medical Council of India (Prevention and Prohibition of Ragging in Medical Colleges/Institutions) Regulations, 2009" under Section 33 of the Indian Medical Council Act, 1956.

4. Punishable Ingredients of Ragging

- (vii) Suspension from hostel
- (viii) Restriction from institution for a period of 1 to 4 years
- (ix) Expulsion from an institution and barring from admission in any other institution.
- (x) Fine up to Rs. 25,000/-
- (xi) Collective institution

Conclusion

The primary responsibility to curb ragging would vest with the educational institutions. There is a requirement to active participation of media and civil society as well in controlling them. As rightly observed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, declaring ragging as a cognizable offence cannot control ragging, as the students going to educational institutions should not be subjected to live under fear of police. However, in view of the recent impact on the students, these guidelines to curb the menace of ragging were put in place. The court also has been ensued responsibility to ensure that there is speedy disposal of these matters. The past memories of adverse impact of ragging can only be wiped by strict implementation of these laws.
